2010 HONOREES:

THE HONORABLE FRANK LAUTENBERG

United States Senator for New Jersey

For his sustained leadership to protect workers and the environment from toxic hazards, including passage of the community right to know law, preventing pre-emption of our state's landmark chemical security policies, and advancing reform of the Toxic Substances Control Act.

COALITION FOR HEALTHY PORTS

For advocating to end poverty and pollution at the New York and New Jersey ports through the creation of good quality jobs and supporting a cleaner, more efficient, 21st century business model for port trucking.

HARRIET RUBENSTEIN

Public Policy Staff, Health Professionals and Allied Employees, AFT

For her long-term leadership to win health and safety protections for health care workers and their patients, including enactment of New Jersey laws for safe lifting and preventing workplace violence.

FREDON EDUCATION ASSOCIATION, FREDON BOARD OF EDUCATION, AND FREDON PALs (PARENTS AGAINST THE LINES)

For their collaborative efforts to promote a healthy school environment by reaching a settlement agreement with PSE&G to locate high-voltage power lines further away from an elementary school.

WEC BOARD OF DIRECTORS SERVICE AWARD

JANE NOGAKI

Pesticide Program Coordinator, New Jersey Environmental Federation

For her years of dedicated leadership as a WEC officer and Board member.
