

7. Find Educational Information

There is a wealth of free health and safety educational information. Many publications are just a phone call away. Useful phone numbers are given throughout this guide, in the short list below, and in PART THREE, Section 5.

It can often be quicker to obtain information by accessing the web. A web search can find publications to use immediately. Useful websites are given throughout this guide and in PART THREE, Section 6.

HELPFUL HINTS

Before beginning to search on the web, consult A Guide to Health and Safety Information on the Internet at www.nycosh.org/where\_to\_get\_help/www-intro.html The NYCOSH website itself has more than 70 pages of links to health and safety information.
